

Quilt Talk

LEARN SOME NEW TRICKS!

Every once in a while we run a program we call "Four Corners". Guild members donate their time and expertise to demonstrate interesting tools, patterns or techniques. Members hop from corner to corner as the volunteer explains the technique three or four times. Now you all know that our meeting room at Hope Christian Reform Church is round and has no corners! So what should we call this type of program? Around The Sewing Room? Round About Techniques? Round Here, We All Sew The Same? There will be a prize for whoever comes up with a name we like and adopt!

Here's what is store for you:

Sue Carmichael is demoing scrap crazy templates.
Joanne Mowat is demoing big stitch.
Jane Shier is demoing curvy log cabin.
Edith Kauffeldt is demoing the folded star pot holders.

ODDS & ENDS

Newsletter Editor Found!

How wonderful for all of us that we have a new member, Aprille Janes, and that she stepped right up and volunteered to do our newsletter. Aprille and I are talking about how we'll transition this job Aprille is likely to start with the April Newsletter. Thanks Aprille! Marion

Community Outreach!!

The first new group of Divas met at Hope Church on Tuesday, March 31st to begin the first of the dignity quilts that will be made and donated to the community. It was a great feeling to know that the Divas are up and running again and we enjoyed a terrific day of laughter and quilt making. The "day group" includes Marg Causton, Connie Walker, Karen Lee and myself. Thanks for coming out ladies! Our log cabin beauty is off to a great start. The seven "night group" Divas will meet on Monday evening, April 13th to begin the second of the dignity quilts. There is always room for more so let me know if you are interested in joining in, especially if a weekend group is of interest to you. Look for Show 'n Tell on these Outreach projects in May or June.

Robin

Meetings Meetings Meetings Keep Your Guild Going!

Any member is welcome at our Executive Meetings to see what we do and perhaps to warm up to a job!?! Next meeting is Monday April 27th, at 7 pm at Greenbank Church.

Planning has started for our next quilt show and any member is welcome to join this committee. Our next meeting is Monday May 11th at 7 pm and is held at the home of Marion Meyers, 318 McDonald Street in Port Perry.

A SHOW OF HANDS - save the date - May 6 & 7, 2016

We're off and running! The planning has started. Anyone is welcome to join the organizing committee, so please come out to our next meeting. We've got an overall plan and we're now onto doing the plans for each area. We've got a head start on Guest Services, the Cafe and our Member's Boutique. We need people to head up a few areas. We need a Treasurer and someone to coordinate our Memory Lane. Sheri has agreed to join us to organize a program of classes!

Meeting: Monday May 11, 7 - 9 pm, at the home of Marion Meyers, 318 McDonald Street in Port Perry. 905-985-1335

AN OPPORTUNITY TO SHOW YOUR STUFF - AT THE SCUGOG COUNCIL FOR THE ARTS

Your guild is a member of the Scugog Council for the Arts and we are passing along this exciting news - they are putting on a group show of fine craft in June 2015. Let's share some of our beautiful quilts and take this opportunity to sell some of our wonderful work. They've put out a call for submissions and the link to their website and the application is below.
